

Valdosta-Lowndes
Azalea Festival 2010
Festival Dates: March 13 and 14, 2010
Drexel Park - Valdosta Georgia

Application Acknowledgments with reserved space information will be mailed to those who apply by March 1, 2010.

Vendors:

It is with great pleasure that the Valdosta-Lowndes Azalea Festival invites you to participate in its TENTH ANNUAL AZALEA FESTIVAL in azalea-filled Drexel Park on Saturday and Sunday, March 13 and 14, 2010. This event still has FREE ADMISSION! Vendors are selected on a "first come-first served" basis until all the spaces in the park are filled. APPLY EARLY!

FESTIVAL FACTS:

This is a family-oriented Festival offering entertainment and activities for all ages: 3 Stages of music and entertainment, a fabulous KidZone, Arts and Crafts, Commercial Items, a Fine Art Area, Strolling Entertainers, A Native American Village and a Fantastic Food Court.

When:

Saturday and Sunday March 13 and 14, 2010 from 10am to 6pm Saturday/10am-5pm Sunday.

Where:

Drexel Park at the corner of Patterson and Brookwood Drive, (1401 N. Patterson Street) in Valdosta, Georgia.

Uniformed Security patrols the park throughout the nights of the Festival.

Attendance last year:

Approximately 30,000 people from all over South Georgia and North Florida.

Media Sponsors:

Two TV stations, 9 radio stations and seven regional newspapers.

The low Vendor Rates are the cost for the two days of the Festival.

Guidelines, which include set-up times, are on the flip-side of this page and must be adhered to.

FOOD VENDORS - CALL THE PHONE NUMBER BELOW FOR AVAILABILITY or EMAIL YOUR MENU TO THE ADDRESS BELOW BY November 1, 2009.

Please sign the application AND the release on the application included in this mailing.

Questions?

Phone: 229-269-9381

fax: 229-293-0716

email:azaleafestivalvaldosta@mchsi.com

Check out our website at: www.azaleafestival.com

